

Table of Contents

Abstracts.....	i
Introduction	1
Anti-Salazarism and Transnational Solidarity: Franco-Portuguese Student Activism in the 1960s.....	4
Melissa Byrnes
Striving After Style: Francophone Diplomacy in Prussia, 1740–86.....	19
Matthew McDonald
Le papillon de l’Ain : Un département au cœur des circulations transnationales au milieu du XIXe siècle.....	40
Carine Renoux
The Geography and Control of the Clandestine Book Trade in France, 1770–89.....	53
Simon Burrows
Resettling Europe: Paul Robin, His Tribe, and Inter-Imperial Constructions of Whiteness in the 1890s and early 1900s.....	70
Charlotte Ann Legg
An Anglophile Amateur? New Zealanders’ Perceptions of Pierre de Coubertin.....	85
Geoff Watson
The Hatted Nude in the Art of Belle Époque Paris	97
Helen Gramotnev
French Feminists at the International Council of Women, 1888–1914.....	113
Jean Elisabeth Pedersen
An Intendant to a Noble Family at the End of the Old Regime.....	130
Timothy Tackett
Will the Real Catiline Please Stand Up? Framing Intimidation in the National Assembly of 1789.....	137
Robert H. Blackman
Representing Poverty in Petitions for Assistance in Revolutionary Bordeaux, 1791–95.....	148
David Briscoe
The General Will and the Extreme-Right in the National Constituent Assembly, 1789–90.....	162
Jeffrey Ryan Harris

The “Affaire Petit”: Revolutionary Nevers and An Early Challenge to the Power of the Church.....176
Julie P. Johnson

Transimperial Exiles: Emigration and the Making of the Revolutionary Caribbean.....186
Patrick Harris

Historiographical Reflections

The Historiography of the 1789 Revolution from Alfred Cobban to Recent Times.....199
Pamela Pilbeam

George Rudé: The Contours of a Career.....206
Doug Munro